

Data Dictionary

This section contains a listing of all the terms used in the Electronic Data Exchange (EDE) process. The listing is divided up into 5 columns that have specific definitions. They are as follows:

- Field Name – Describes the name of the field contained within each record layout and/or EDEExpress software.
- Field Description/Important Notes – Describes what the field name is. If an item number (i.e. 1.) precedes the definition of a field, it is the FAFSA question number for that field. It also contains any other important information about that field that is necessary for the EDE process.
- ISIR Only Content – This column describes information that will appear only in the ISIR record layout. If this column is blank, then this field is either not in the ISIR layout or the Valid Field Content is not different from other layouts. Refer to the ISIR layout if further clarification is needed.
- Valid Field Content – Contains the acceptable formats and characters (alpha, numeric and other) for the field name. In some instances not all Valid Field Content is valid for all layouts. Refer to the specific layout for clarification. When referencing file layouts, take note of whether the data element is justified left or right. Data left justified are filled with blank spaces; data right justified are filled with zeroes. 'ED use only' in Valid Field Content is filler from the user's perspective.
- Field Length/Message Class – This column details the length of each field as well as informs the user as to which layouts that field can be found. Fields without message classes are used for interfacing with either the SSCR or Packaging components of the EDEExpress software.
