

SAR ACKNOWLEDGEMENT COMMENTS

We have processed your application for Federal student aid, or the correction that you submitted electronically through your school. On the back of this page we printed the information we received and a summary of the results of processing that information. We may have assumed certain information to calculate your eligibility for Federal student aid. We printed any assumptions we made and the word "assumed" for those items on the back of this page. Contact your Financial Aid Administrator (FAA) if:

- the assumptions we made are not correct,
- you need to make other corrections,
- we indicate below that we need more information to determine your eligibility,
- we indicate below that you are not eligible for a Federal Pell Grant,
- we indicate below you are selected for verification, or
- we indicate below you must work with your FAA to resolve some eligibility issues.

You need to give us more information before we can determine your eligibility for Federal student aid.

If all the information on this Student Aid Report is correct, you may be eligible to receive a Federal Pell Grant and other Federal student aid in 1996-97. Your FAA will determine whether you meet all other requirements to receive aid. The amount of aid will depend on the cost of attendance at your school, your enrollment status, Congressional budget restrictions, and other factors.

Based on the information you gave us, you are not eligible for a Federal Pell Grant. However, you may be eligible for other types of aid.

Your application has been selected for review in a process called verification. You must submit to your school signed copies of certain 1995 documents.

You must work with your FAA to resolve some issues before the FAA can determine if you are eligible to receive Federal financial aid.

You must resolve some issues before we can determine your eligibility for Federal student aid. Unless you are completing verification, it may be too late for you to make corrections or give us any more information this year. If you are still completing verification and you need to correct your Student Aid Report (SAR), contact the FAA at your school for assistance. We must have your corrected SAR no later than August 15, 1997.

SAR COMMENTS

As you requested, this is a copy of the Student Aid Report (SAR) we processed on . No information has been changed.

You indicated on your FAFSA Express application that you were applying for "early admission" and would not enroll in college before July 1, 1997. If this is not correct, contact your FAA.

This Student Aid Report (SAR) is a result of corrections to data entered incorrectly.

Read this letter carefully and review each item on Part 2 of this Student Aid Report (SAR). Follow the instructions at the top of Part 2 and in the Free Application to Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) instruction booklet to help you make corrections. For additional help with your SAR, contact your Financial Aid Administrator (FAA).

This Student Aid Report (SAR) has been produced because your verification issue has been resolved.

Your application cannot be processed because our records indicate that you are currently being denied aid due to a debarment and suspension action. If you wish to contest this finding, please contact the Debarment and Suspension Specialist, U.S. Department of Education, 202-708-5129, within 30 days after the date you submit this SAR to your school.

You tried to change your social security number. The Social Security Administration already verified that this social security number belongs to you. If you need assistance, see your FAA.

Records indicate that you received Federal student aid in a prior school year, but may not have registered with Selective Service as required. Your Selective Service registration status must be confirmed before you can receive any additional aid. If you are already registered, are exempt from registration, or are not required to register, contact Selective Service at 847-688-6888. Otherwise, if you have not yet reached age 26, you should register at your local post office.

You reported a total income for your parents that appears to be unusually low. Review the boldface items in Section F on Part 2 of your SAR and make corrections if necessary.

You reported a total expected 1996 income for your parents that appears to be unusually low. Review the boldface items in Section I on Part 2 of your SAR and make corrections if necessary.

Your application cannot be processed until you have resolved a prior year verification overpayment. Contact the U.S. Department of Education by calling 202-708-4601, or by writing to: U.S. Department of Education, Student Financial Assistance Programs, Analysis and Forecasting Division, Grants Analysis Branch, 7th and D Streets, SW, ROB-3, Room 4613, Washington, DC 20202-5451. Include with your letter a copy of this SAR and your current address and telephone number (including the area code).

We determined your eligibility by using a simplified calculation. We could not provide a full data calculation because of incomplete or inconsistent information. To get a full data calculation, you must complete or correct the items in boldface type on Part 2 of your SAR.

You reported a total income for yourself that appears to be unusually low. Review the boldface items in Section F on Part 2 of your SAR and make corrections if necessary.

You reported a total expected 1996 income for yourself that appears to be unusually low. Review the boldface items in Section I on Part 2 of your SAR and make corrections if necessary.

It appears that the social security number you reported on your application is not a valid social security number. See your FAA for assistance.

The Social Security Administration did not confirm that the social security number you reported on your aid application is valid. You must verify or correct your social security number in Item 8 on your SAR.

You verified that the social security number in Item 8 is correct. However, before you can receive Federal student aid, you must submit current proof to your FAA that this information is correct. In addition, if you have not already done so, you should provide documentation of your citizenship status to your FAA.

Selective Service records indicate that you are not required to be registered with them until within 30 days of your 18th birthday. If you have not yet initiated the registration process, you may either check the "Yes" box for Item 105 on Part 2 of your SAR or obtain and complete a Selective Service Registration form, available at your local post office. If you have already requested that you be registered, they will process your request 30 days prior to your 18th birthday.

This report was produced in response to your Financial Aid Administrator's (FAA's) use of professional judgement to ADJUST your Expected Family Contribution (EFC).

We have forwarded your name to Selective Service for registration, as you requested. They will process your registration request 30 days prior to your 18th birthday.

Your registration or your exemption status has been confirmed by Selective Service.

The Selective Service reported that you have not registered with them. If you are female or were born before 1960, disregard this comment. Otherwise, a male who is required to register with Selective Service must be registered before aid can be disbursed. If you have not yet registered, are male, and are 18 through 25 years of age, you must either check the "Yes" box for Item 105 on Part 2 of your SAR, or obtain and complete a Selective Service Registration form, available at your local post office. If you believe you have already registered or are exempt, please contact the Selective Service at 847-688-6888 to resolve any problems regarding your registration status.

You did not tell us your state of legal residence. To calculate your eligibility for Federal student aid, we assumed that your state of legal residence is the same as your mailing state (for independent students) or your parents' state (for dependent students whose mailing state is blank). If this assumption is wrong, correct Item 11 by entering your two-character state code.

The date you reported in Item 18 as the date you were married, separated, divorced, or widowed does not appear to be correct. Review this information and provide the correct month and year that your marital status changed.

You changed your marital status to "married." You are required to report marital status as of the date that you signed your original student aid application, and you should not update this item if you get married during the 1996-97 school year. Review your response and make sure it is correct.

We could not determine your eligibility for Federal student aid based on the information you reported on your Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). Take both parts of this Student Aid Report (SAR) to the Financial Aid Administrator (FAA) at your school to get help correcting your information.

Due to special circumstances, permission has been granted by the U.S. Department of Education to process your application after the June 30, 1997 deadline.

We could not understand some of the information you submitted. We have printed question marks (?????) in the "You told us" column for those items we didn't understand. You must correct those items.

A student aid application was recently submitted to us by someone from this address. Either no name or an incomplete name was provided on the application or on the envelope. The applicant must provide his or her full name in Items 1 and 2 on Part 2 of the SAR.

Our records show that the Social Security Number (SSN) you reported is being reported by someone else. Please see your FAA to determine if you need to correct your SAR.

We have applied a formula to the information from the form you submitted. The result of this formula will be used by your school to determine your eligibility for most types of Federal student aid. See your FAA to determine what types of student aid you may be able to receive. Based on the information you gave us, you are not eligible for a Federal Pell Grant. All the schools listed on this SAR will receive an electronic report of your financial aid information. Unless a school informs you otherwise, you do not need to submit this SAR to any school. Keep the SAR in case you need to make corrections, or if you decide to attend a school that is not listed.

It takes approximately four weeks to receive a new SAR once you send corrections to the address next to the Certification. If you want to be considered for a Federal Pell Grant, your FAA must receive your SAR by August 29, 1997, or your last day of enrollment, whichever comes first. Other student aid programs have different deadlines. See your FAA for more information.

Records indicate that you received Federal student aid in a prior school year, but may not have registered with Selective Service as required. Your Selective Service registration status must be confirmed before you can receive any additional aid. If you are already registered, are exempt from registration, or are not required to register, contact Selective Service at 847-688-6888. Otherwise, if you have not yet reached age 26, you should register at your local post office. 0000014

You reported a total income for your parents that appears to be unusually low. Review the items marked with an "h" or an "*" in Section F of your ISIR and make corrections if necessary.

You reported a total expected 1996 income for your parents that appears to be unusually low. Review the items marked with an "h" or an "*" in Section I of your ISIR and make corrections if necessary.

Your application cannot be processed until you have resolved a prior year verification overpayment. Contact the U.S. Department of Education by calling 202-708-4601, or by writing to: U.S. Department of Education, Student Financial Assistance Programs, Analysis and Forecasting Division, Grants Analysis Branch, 7th and D Streets, SW, ROB-3, Room 4613, Washington, DC 20202-5451. Include with your letter a copy of this ISIR and your current address and telephone number (including the area code).

We determined your eligibility by using a simplified calculation. We could not provide a full data calculation because of incomplete or inconsistent information. To get a full data calculation, you must complete or correct the items marked with an "h" or an "*" on your ISIR.

You reported a total income for yourself that appears to be unusually low. Review the items marked with an "h" or an "*" in Section F of your ISIR and make corrections if necessary.

You reported a total expected 1996 income for yourself that appears to be unusually low. Review the items marked with an "h" or an "*" in Section I of your ISIR and make corrections if necessary.

It appears that the social security number you reported on your application is not a valid social security number. See your FAA for assistance.

The Social Security Administration did not confirm that the social security number you reported on your aid application is valid. You must verify or correct your social security number on your ISIR.

You verified that the social security number on your ISIR is correct. However, before you can receive Federal student aid, you must submit current proof to your FAA that this information is correct. In addition, if you have not already done so, you should provide documentation of your citizenship status to your FAA.

Selective Service records indicate that you are not required to be registered with them until within 30 days of your 18th birthday. If you have not yet initiated the registration process, you may either answer "Yes" to "Register you for Selective Service" in Section H of this ISIR or obtain and complete a Selective Service Registration form, available at your local post office. This Institutional Student Information Record (ISIR) is in response to the student aid application you submitted to your school. A previous application you submitted is also on file. This ISIR contains the same information as the ISIR or SAR you received from your previous application. If you need to make changes to your information, you should make them to this ISIR by following the instructions given to you by your Financial Aid Administrator (FAA).

We could not process your FAA's request for an ADJUSTMENT to your Expected Family Contribution (EFC). Either you did not provide corrections to your financial information, or your FAA did not provide the information necessary to process an adjustment. As a result, we only made changes to your name and address if requested. No changes to financial information were made. Contact your FAA for further assistance.

This ISIR contains information that was corrected from your previous ISIR or SAR. Your Financial Aid Administrator provided a signature and/or a Title IV School Code number in the School Use Only box, but did not check the box to request a professional judgment adjustment. Therefore we cannot determine whether the changes made were student corrections or FAA adjustments.

We could not process your FAA's request to perform or cancel a DEPENDENCY OVERRIDE. Your FAA did not provide the necessary information. Contact your FAA for further assistance.

You should report the marital status and expected income for only the parent(s) who will support you.

You reported a blank or a negative amount, which we cannot accept, in at least one field on your application. Please respond to the items marked with an "h" or an "*" on your ISIR.

You reported expected 1996 income for a spouse. However, you reported or we assumed that your marital status is You should report expected 1996 income for a spouse only if you are married. If you are married, correct your "Marital Status" in Section A of your ISIR to "Married". If you are unmarried or were married, but the divorce, separation, or death of your spouse occurred before you applied for student aid, correct "Spouse's Expected Income" in Section I. Also review all other items in this section to make sure they are correct.

It appears you reported the same income value more than once. Review the income items marked with an "h" or an "*" on your ISIR. If these items are correct, do not change them.

We have applied a formula to the information from the form you submitted. The result of this formula will be used by your school to determine your eligibility for most types of Federal student aid. See your FAA to determine what types of student aid you may be able to receive. Based on the information you gave us, you are not eligible for a Federal Pell Grant. You should submit a copy of this ISIR to all the schools that you may be interested in attending for the 1996-97 school year. They will use it to determine your eligibility for Federal student aid. Keep the original ISIR for the school where you actually enroll.

It may be too late to submit any corrections to your ISIR. If you want to be considered for a Federal Pell Grant, your school must receive a complete, correct ISIR no later than August 29, 1997, or your last day of enrollment, whichever comes first. Other student aid programs have different deadlines. Under certain circumstances, students selected for verification have an additional 60 days from their last day of enrollment, or August 29, 1997, to submit corrections. Contact your FAA for more information.

We were unable to determine your eligibility because the information you submitted on your application or on your ISIR was incomplete or inconsistent. Unless you are completing verification, it may be too late for you to make corrections or give us any more information for this year. If you are still completing verification and you need to correct your data, contact the Financial Aid Administrator at your school for assistance. Your school must have your corrected ISIR no later than August 15, 1997.

To receive Federal student aid, you cannot be in default on any U.S. Department of Education student loan. Because of processing problems we were unable to determine whether you are in default on a loan. Contact your FAA for more information.

Our records indicate that you are in DEFAULT on a Federal student loan. You are not eligible to receive any Federal student aid until your account has been resolved.

Our records indicate that you received at least one overpayment of a Federal Pell Grant. You are required by law to repay any funds received from the Federal Pell Grant program to which you were not entitled. Until your overpayment has been repaid in full, you are ineligible to receive any Federal student assistance. Contact the U.S. Department of Education at 202-708-4766 to resolve your account.

Our records indicate that you are in DEFAULT on at least one Federal student loan and that you received at least one overpayment of a Federal Pell Grant. You are not eligible to receive any Federal student aid until your account has been resolved.

We matched your social security number (SSN) with the National Student Loan Data System (NSLDS), but the name on the NSLDS record did not match the name you reported on your student aid application. Therefore this ISIR does not contain the financial aid history that is associated with your reported SSN. You should review both your name and SSN as reported, and work with your FAA to resolve discrepancies.	0000138

NOTE: You reported a value(s) that exceeds the amount of space allowed on the ISIR.	0000139
This value appears on your ISIR as all nines. Contact your FAA to see how this affects	0000139
your calculation.	0000139
	0000139
	0000140
You must submit proof of your citizenship status to your FAA before you can receive	0000141
any Federal student aid.	0000141
	0000141
The Immigration and Naturalization Service (INS) could not confirm your statement that	0000142 you are an eligible noncitizen because there is a question about your alien registration	0000142 number. You must submit proof of your noncitizen eligibility to your school within 30	0000142 days after you receive this ISIR. If you fail to submit proof within 30 days, you may	0000142
be found ineligible for Federal student aid.	0000142
	0000142
Your citizenship status has been confirmed by the Immigration and Naturalization	0000143
Service (INS), and you meet the citizenship requirements for Federal student aid.	0000143
	0000143
The Immigration and Naturalization Service (INS) did not confirm your statement that	0000144
you are an eligible noncitizen. You must submit proof of your noncitizen eligibility to	0000144 your school within 30 days after you receive this ISIR. If you fail to submit proof	0000144
within 30 days, you may be found ineligible for Federal student aid.	0000144
	0000144
Because of processing problems, the Immigration and Naturalization Service (INS) was	0000145 not able to confirm your statement that you are an eligible noncitizen. You must submit	0000145
proof of your eligible noncitizen status to your school before you may receive Federal	0000145
student aid.	0000145
	0000145
	0000146
You reported on your application that you are a U.S. citizen, but the Social Security	0000146
Administration did not confirm this. You need to provide your school with documentation	0000146 of your citizenship status before you can receive Federal student aid. If you are an	0000146
eligible non-citizen, you must correct "Citizenship Status" on this ISIR and provide	0000146
your Alien Registration Number if necessary.	0000146
	0000147
You did not authorize us to release financial information to your State agency. While	0000148
this does not affect your eligibility for Federal student aid, the State agency may need	0000148
this information to consider you for other aid. If you want to release your complete	0000148
financial information to your State agency, correct "Should Data be Released to State"	0000148
in Section H to "Yes".	0000148
	0000148
If all the information on this ISIR is correct, you may be eligible to receive a	0000149
Federal Pell Grant and other Federal student aid in 1996-97. Your FAA will determine	0000149
whether you meet all eligibility requirements to receive aid. The amount of aid will	0000149 depend on the cost of attendance at your school, your enrollment status (full-time,	0000149
three-quarter-time, half-time, or less than half-time), Congressional budget restric-	0000149
tions, and other factors.	0000149 out how to make corrections later, if you need to.

Your application has been selected for review in a process called verification. If you have not already provided certain 1995 financial documents to your school, contact your FAA immediately.

This ISIR reflects your DEPENDENCY STATUS, as determined by your FAA.

Your DEPENDENCY STATUS override has been cancelled as requested by your FAA.

Your application has been selected for review in a process called verification. You must submit to your school signed copies of certain 1995 financial documents for you and your parents. Contact your FAA to find out which documents are required.

Your application has been selected for review in a process called verification. You must submit to your school signed copies of certain 1995 financial documents for you (and your spouse). Contact your FAA to find out which documents are required.

This Institutional Student Information Record (ISIR) has been produced by your school and is a result of a processing changes. Submit this corrected ISIR as soon as possible to your Financial Aid Administrator (FAA) at the school you are attending, or plan to attend.

You reported on your student aid application that you have dependents other than a spouse. However, you reported that you are married, and that the number of family members is 2. These answers are inconsistent. Review your answers to Student's "Marital Status" in Section A, "Have Dependents Other Than Spouse" in Section D, and "Number of Family Members" in Section E of your ISIR. Make any corrections if necessary.
